Frequently Asked Questions

How do I organise a site visit?

Simply reach out to one of our friendly event specialists via email eventsmanager@sandhurst.com or give us a call on 03 8787 7011.

What furniture do I have access to?

We have a wide choice of furniture configurations. Round and long tables, sofas, coffee tables and high bars along with a choice of black or white table linen and use of house centrepieces.

Do you have AV equipment available?

Use of our audio visual equipment (lectern, wireless microphones, 70" TV screen(s) and sound system) are included with every Celebration of Life package.

What about parking arrangements?

We have ample parking onsite and within a short walk of the venue. Parking maps are available to share with your guests upon request.

Can we bring our own flowers?

Of course you can bring your own flowers and decorations. Each package provides for a small number of arrangements as well as a memorial book.

Can we hold a funeral onsite?

Funerals can be held on-site either in our Grand Room, or outside at Blair Park.

Can we add an additional bar tab?

Each package comes with an initial bar tab which can be added to. You can also select to have an open bar tab that is settled at the conclusion of your event.

Do you allow special requests?

We understand that a 'Celebration of Life' is a reflection of your loved one, so if you have a special request we will work with you to ensure that it can be delivered.

Talk to our friendly team today,
and let us assist you with an amazing Celebration of Life event.
